From: Telecommunication Arts (A.B.J.) To: Media Arts (A.B.J.)

Proposal to combine the following majors into one new major in Journalism and add four new areas of emphasis:

From: Magazines (A.B.J.), Newspapers (A.B.J.), Publication Management (A.B.J.)

To: Journalism (A.B.J.)

Area of Emphasis in Magazine Journalism

Area of Emphasis in Public Affairs Journalism

Area of Emphasis in Publication Management

Area of Emphasis in Visual Journalism

The committee tabled the request to revise Academic Affairs Policy 4.07-11, Write-In Course Policy, until the fall UCC meeting.

The committee approved the proposal for a new prefix: ICON, Integrative Conservation

The committee heard a report from the Environmental Literacy Subcommittee concerning courses that satisfy the Environmental Literacy Requirement. The subcommittee reviewed the courses to determine if they meet either or both of the criteria in the current requirement. The UCC agreed to remove courses that do not meet either of the criteria effective spring 2011. The departments will be notified and have an opportunity to revise and resubmit courses for consideration prior to the effective date. The Environmental Literacy Subcommittee will meet during the summer and present a proposal to the Full University Curriculum Committee for consideration in the fall.

The committee re-elected David Shipley as chair for the 2010-2011 academic year.

The meeting adjourned at 3:55 p.m.
