RE: Termination of the Certificate in Eastern Central European Studies

Dear David:

For several years there has been no activity or interest in the Certificate in Eastern Central European Studies. No students are currently registered, and courses that serve the program are offered only infrequently. The Franklin College does not support the program financially, and there is no mention of it on any University web site. The Franklin College Curriculum Committee and the Faculty Senate have voted and approved termination of this Certificate.

We feel that it is appropriate that this program be terminated.

Sincerely,

Hugh Ruppensburg
Sr. Associate Dean
Franklin College of Arts & Sciences
