

Cultural Diversity Subcommittee 2024-2025

Subcommittee Members:

Dodie Cantrell-Bickley, Chair, College of Journalism and Mass Communication, absent

Karen Aguar, College of Business, Substitute Chair

Jennifer Elkins, School of Social Work

Melissa Kozak, College of Family and Consumer Sciences

Melissa Landers-Potts, College of Family and Consumer Sciences, absent

Rodney Mauricio, College of Arts and Sciences, absent

Michelle McElhannon, College of Pharmacy

Amy Murphy, College of Education

Attendees:

Crystal Graham, Office of the Registrar

Hannah Sikes, Office of the Registrar

The Cultural Diversity Subcommittee of the University Curriculum Committee met on March 28, 2025, at 10:00 a.m. via Zoom.

The subcommittee unanimously approved the minutes of the October 7, 2024, meeting.

The subcommittee unanimously approved the request from the Franklin College of Arts and Sciences for the following courses to satisfy the Cultural Diversity Requirement:

ANTH 4350-4350L, Anthropology of North America

RELI 1400, Jews and Judaism in Popular Culture

RELI 3500, Antisemitism

SPAN 2150, Language Diversity and Linguistic Identity: Spanish in the United States

The committee discussed upcoming revisions to the General Education Core Curriculum.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:23 a.m.

Karen Aguar, Substitute Chair

Cultural Diversity Subcommittee