Committee Members:
Rodney Mauricio, Chair, College of Arts and Sciences
Jonathan Evans, College of Arts and Sciences
David Spooner, College of Environment and Design
Ashley Steffens, College of Environment and Design
William Vencill, Ex-Officio

The General Education Subcommittee of the University Curriculum Committee met on November 20, 2020, at 10:00 a.m. via Zoom.

The subcommittee unanimously approved the requests to include the following courses in the list of courses that satisfy the General Education Core Curriculum:

> Area III, Quantitative Reasoning
> SOCI 3610, Quantitative Methods of Social Research
>
> Area V, Social Sciences
> ANTH 2002/2002E, Tombs and Temples
> ANTH 2265, Introduction to Cultural Anthropology

The subcommittee unanimously denied the requests to include the following courses in the list of courses that satisfy the General Education Core Curriculum. The subcommittee determined the courses do not meet the General Education Learning Outcomes for the core areas for which they were submitted for consideration.

> Area IV, Humanities, and the Arts
> ANTH 2002/2002E, Tombs and Temples
>
> Area IV, World Languages and Global Culture
> ANTH 2265, Introduction to Cultural Anthropology
> - The subcommittee has requested that the department provide additional evidence of how this course incorporates global culture components. The subcommittee has asked that the department revise the CAPA course description, topical outline, and learning objectives to reflect this additional evidence and resubmit for consideration.
>
> Area V, Social Sciences
> LAND 4120/6120, Designing Healthy Places
> - The subcommittee requested that the college update the CAPA course description to better reflect the topical outline and learning objectives and resubmit for consideration.

Dr. Katie Burr, Associate Director of Assessment, provided the subcommittee with an update on the General Education Assessment process.

The meeting adjourned at 11:25 a.m.
