MILITARY ID CARDS

United States Code Title 18, Chapter 33, Section 701 prohibits unauthorized photocopying, reproduction, or possession of Uniformed Services ID (military ID) cards under penalty of fine or imprisonment. The USG position on copying and retaining copies of military ID's is in agreement with an article in the fall 2009 issue of The Reporter published by the Judge Advocate General's Corps. The guidance in the "Ask the Expert" article states: "...both federal law and DOD (Department of Defense) regulation prohibit the unauthorized photocopying of military ID, with the key word being 'unauthorized'. Members (of the Armed Forces) may allow photocopying of their ID card to facilitate DOD benefits. Photocopying is unauthorized in all other instances."

The provision of in-state tuition to military personnel, their spouses and dependent children enrolled in USG institutions is not considered a DOD (Department of Defense) benefit. Therefore, no institution may make or accept a copy of a Military ID card. Institutions must have a documented procedure for destroying any copies of Military ID cards received by mail, fax or submitted to the institution in any other way in their manual.

Institutions should document the review of a Military ID using the Confirmation of Review of Military ID Worksheet. The Worksheet can be found under Military Resources on the Tuition Classification Resource Page.

For additional information, please review the August 23, 2012 Military ID Cards memo also found in the Military Resources section of the Tuition Classification Resource Page
